

WHO NEEDS DISCO? WHO NEEDS TANGO?

Square Dance is Where it's At!

SO SWING ON OUT FOR SPRING'S BEST SQUARE DANCE PARTY and the kickoff of the campaign to make Stuyvesant Town a Landmark.

WHEN: Saturday, April 26, 2008
TIME: 6:00pm to 10:00pm
WHERE: Calvary Church, Anderson Hall
61 Gramercy Park North
21st Street, east of Park Avenue South
ADMISSION: $20 Individual
$25 Couple
$30 Family
$10 Senior
$5 surcharge if purchased at the door

NOTE: Admission includes food from Bruno Gourmet Market, 282 First Avenue.

Renowned callers Don and Dot Coy will make certain to please square dance experts, teach first timers the dances of the American West, and see that everyone gets to dance with changing partners – maybe even with our Councilmember Dan Garodnick and other elected representatives who will join the party.

RAFFLES!

Two $50 gift certificates from Quigley's
$25 gift certificate from Bruno Gourmet Market
Dinner for two, and a bottle of wine from M J Armstrong
$50 Gift Certificate from Gabay's
$25 Gift Certificate from Lenz's Deli
$25 Gift Certificate from Ruby's Japanese and Thai Cuisine
$50 Gift Certificate from Petite Abeille

Raffle tickets are $1.00 each, $5.00 for a book of six.

Landmark Committee volunteers will be selling Square Dance tickets and raffles at a table on Saturday, April 12th and 19th, 10:00am to 2:00pm at First Avenue and 20th Street, the northeast corner. This evening is the first in a series of events to help raise money to make Stuyvesant Town a landmark and a permanent part of recorded New York City history.
