UNITY DAY

We're going to show potential new owners, policy makers, and banks that they have to deal fairly with the people who live here.

Saturday November 14th at 1:00 PM.

Join your neighbors at Solar One in Stuyvesant Cove Park (22nd Street at East River) to demonstrate our determination to maintain the affordability and unique character of our community.

Our elected officials, tenant advocates, housing experts and others will speak to the issues and answer your questions.

In case of rain, UNITY DAY will move to Simon Baruch IS 104
